1. INTRODUCTION

The Parliament of India extends a warm welcome to all delegations to the 12th BRICS Parliamentary Forum (hereinafter referred to as the BRICS-PF) to be held in New Delhi on 26-27 October 2026. The 12th BRICS PF will underscore the pivotal role of Parliaments in advancing people-centric development under the overall theme “Fostering Parliaments for people-centric development”.

Building on the rich legacy of the BRICS Parliamentary Forum, the 12th BRICS PF aims to engage Presiding Officers of BRICS Member and Partner Parliaments under India’s Chairship for consensus-based dialogue on identified themes through High Level Sessions.

Four High Level Sessions have been planned during 12th BRICS-PF on the following themes:

- (i) Resilience: The critical role of Parliament in strengthening institutional resilience for a better future
- (ii) Innovation: Harnessing Parliament for promoting innovation in digital technologies and artificial intelligence with a human face.
- (iii) Cooperation: Leveraging Parliamentary cooperation for a more representative global governance architecture.
- (iv) Sustainability: The centrality of Parliament in fostering a sustainable and inclusive future for our nations.

The event will also host the Meeting of the Chairs of the Committees on International Affairs of the Parliaments of BRICS member and partner countries.

The General Information Note intends to provide information useful for participating delegations. Any changes in the programme or any additional information will be notified to the delegations via email. For additional information and assistance, please contact us at bricspf2026@lss.sansad.in

3. VENUE AND ACCESS TO THE VENUE

The 12th BRICS Parliamentary Forum will be held in New Delhi.

Venue: Parliament House Estate, New Delhi-110001

Access to the Venue:

Only accredited delegation members will have access to the venue:

- Appropriate seating arrangements are being made for Presiding Officers/Leader of the Delegation and four members of the delegation from unicameral parliaments.
- In the case of bicameral parliaments, seating arrangements are being made for Presiding Officers and four delegates from each House at the venue.
- Delegates will be provided colour - coded badges. Each badge will display the delegate's photograph, name, country/organization, and will be non-transferable. Delegates are advised to always keep their badges (access card and/or pin) on display during the meetings and also while entering the venue.

4. PARTICIPATION AND FORMAT OF THE FORUM

Each national parliament of the BRICS members and partner countries is invited to be represented by its Speaker or, in the case of bicameral parliaments, by the Speaker/ President/ Chairperson of each legislative house. In the eventuality that the Presiding Officers is unable to attend, the Deputy-Speaker/Vice-President/Vice-Chairperson or another high-level parliamentary leader may be designated as representative of the Parliament.

In the plenary sessions of the 12th BRICS Parliamentary Forum, only Speakers/Presiding Officers of the Parliaments or their designated representatives will have speaking rights in accordance with the format of the Forum. Speaking slots of 3-4 minutes will be allocated to each country during each plenary session.

Maximum five (05) delegates from BRICS and BRICS Partner countries will be accredited to participate in the Forum:

- I. In the case of countries with Unicameral Parliaments, maximum five delegates (including Presiding Officers/Leader of the Delegation) will be accredited to attend;
- II. In the case of countries with Bicameral Parliaments, accreditation will be granted for five members of the Delegation from each House including Presiding Officers of each of the House.

Working language

English will be the working language for the Sessions of the Forum. However, the host Parliament will endeavour to make interpretation arrangements in a number of other languages at the venue. Participating Delegations may bring along language interpreters for their convenience, for which the host Secretariat may be informed in advance.

Joint Statement/Outcome Document

A preliminary draft Joint Statement will be circulated to Parliaments of BRICS members in late September. The timeframe/schedule for receiving suggestions/amendments from member countries and the finalization of the document can be seen at page 19 of the General Information Note. Delegations that wish to propose amendments to the preliminary draft Joint Statement will be invited to submit their amendments. A compilation of the proposed amendments, as well as a revised draft Joint Statement will be circulated in advance of the Forum. The above document will be discussed during a virtual meeting of Delegation Secretaries to finalize the draft Joint Statement which will be held virtually in mid-October. The draft Joint Statement will be adopted during the 12th BRICS-PF.

Fostering Parliaments for people-centric development.

5. ACCREDITATION

Delegate Accreditation Officer (DAO):

Each participating Parliament is requested to appoint a Delegate Accreditation Officer (DAO). A DAO is required to be nominated by the respective BRICS and BRICS Partner countries to coordinate the registration process of participating delegates. The accreditation will be available through an online portal from 25 August to 25 September 2026.

The DAO is advised to submit the following details by email to bricspf2026@lss.sansad.in, latest by 31 August 2026.

- DAO Name
- DAO Email ID
- Name of Country
- Mobile Number

The registration link for delegates will be emailed by the Host Secretariat to the DAO to complete the registration and accreditation of the delegates. All delegates may be accredited by 25 September 2026.

Delegation Contact Officer(DCO):

Each delegation is requested to appoint a Delegation Contact Officer (DCO) from the accredited delegates. The DCO is expected to be present at the 12th BRICS-PF and will be the first point of contact for various aspects of participation of a delegation in 12th BRICS-PF. The name and contact number of the DCO may be made available to the Host Parliament by the DAO of each delegation during the registration process.

Delegation Liaison Officer (DLO):

A Delegation Liaison Officer (DLO) will be assigned to each delegation by the Host Parliament. The contact details of DLO will be shared in due course of time. DLOs will facilitate arrival /departure and participation in BRICS-PF, etc. The DLOs will be responsible for handing over delegation kits and Conference badges/passes to the respective delegations.

Fostering Parliaments for people-centric development.

6. BILATERAL MEETINGS

Bilateral meeting rooms with varying seating capacities will be available to delegates upon request during the 12th BRICS-PF.

Rooms will be assigned on a “first come, first served” basis and will be allocated in thirty (30) minute blocks.

Requests for bilateral meeting rooms can be made by sending an email at bricspf2026@lss.sansad.in, with the subject ‘Bilateral Room Request’ along with date, time and other relevant details. Requests can also be made directly to the Delegation Liaison Officer (DLO).

Delegations are requested to ensure that the meeting request clearly mentions the number of delegates for allocation of suitable meeting room.

7. ACCOMMODATION AND TRANSPORTATION

ACCOMMODATION

The arrangements and costs for hotel accommodation and related services at hotel (food, beverages, laundry etc.) will rest with the participating delegations.
